Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. (PNC) took the following actions in the fourth quarter of 2012 associated with its residential mortgage banking activities along with other items. The net impact of these actions will reduce PNC's fourth quarter 2012 net income by approximately $.47 per diluted common share.

- PNC recorded $91 million of expenses in the fourth quarter of 2012 related to residential mortgage foreclosure activities, which includes a charge of approximately $70 million resulting from an agreement to amend the consent orders entered into in April 2011. PNC and PNC Bank, along with nine other residential mortgage servicers, have reached an agreement with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (Federal Reserve) to end the independent foreclosure review program under the consent orders and replace it with an accelerated remediation process. PNC expects residential mortgage foreclosure-related compliance expenses to decrease substantially in 2013 compared with 2012.
- PNC recorded a pretax provision of $254 million for residential mortgage repurchase obligations related to expected elevated levels of repurchase demands primarily as a result of further changes in behavior and demand patterns of government-sponsored enterprises, FHLMC and FNMA, for loans sold into agency securitizations, including the years 2004 and 2005. This provision increased the reserve for residential mortgage repurchase claims to $614 million at December 31, 2012.
- PNC recorded a noncash, nontax-deductible goodwill impairment charge of $45 million in the fourth quarter of 2012 related to its Residential Mortgage Banking segment, which had no goodwill remaining at December 31, 2012.
- PNC recorded a pretax gain of $130 million on the sale of a portion of its investment in Visa, or 4 million Visa Class B common shares.
- PNC recorded $35 million of pretax integration costs and $70 million of pretax noncash charges for the remarketing and redemption of high cost hybrid capital securities.

Excluding the net impact of these actions, PNC currently expects its fourth quarter fully diluted earnings per share will exceed the current First Call mean estimate of $1.57. PNC will report its fourth quarter and full year 2012 earnings on January 17, 2013.
