(d) On November 17, 2026, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. (the "Corporation") increased the number of directors constituting the Board from 13 to 14 and elected Mark Wiedman, President of the Corporation, as a director of the Corporation, effective immediately. Mr. Wiedman, 55, has served as President of the Corporation and PNC Bank since May 2025.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Wiedman and any other person pursuant to which he was selected as a director. Mr. Wiedman has not been involved in any transactions with the Corporation that would require disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

(e) On November 17, 2026, the Human Resources Committee (the "Committee") of the Board approved a $20 million performance restricted share unit ("PRSU") award to Mark Wiedman (the "Strategic Leadership Award" or the "Award") under the Corporation's 2026 Omnibus Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan").

In approving the Award, the Committee considered Mr. Wiedman's expanded leadership responsibilities, the importance of his continued leadership and retention, and the Committee's desire to further align his compensation with the Corporation's long-term performance and the interests of its shareholders. The Award is outside the Corporation's regular annual incentive compensation program.

The Award has a five-year term and is eligible to vest in three substantially equal tranches following cumulative performance periods ending on the third, fourth and fifth anniversaries of the grant date. The number of shares earned for each tranche will be based on the Corporation's total shareholder return relative to the Corporation's Performance Peer Group as of the grant date over the applicable performance period. The relative total shareholder return payout will range from 75% to 125% of target and will be capped at target if the Corporation's absolute total shareholder return is negative. Each tranche will also be subject to the Corporation's applicable Common Equity Tier 1 capital ratio test and the Committee's risk review, which may reduce the payout, including below 75% of target or to zero. Net after-tax shares earned with respect to the first two tranches will be subject to a holding requirement through the fifth anniversary of the grant date.

Mr. Wiedman must remain employed through the Committee's certification of the results for the applicable tranche, subject to certain termination provisions described below. If the Corporation terminates Mr. Wiedman's employment without Cause, a prorated portion of each outstanding tranche will remain eligible to vest at the originally scheduled time based on actual performance. The Committee may provide for continued vesting of all or an additional portion of the outstanding Award without proration, in each case based on actual performance. Any unvested portion of the Award will be forfeited upon Mr. Wiedman's voluntary termination, including retirement, or termination for Cause, and may be forfeited for Detrimental Conduct.

Upon a change in control, corporate performance will be fixed at target, with the Award remaining subject to applicable risk conditions and continued service or a qualifying termination. The Award will also be subject to restrictive covenants and the Corporation's applicable clawback, adjustment and recoupment provisions. Cash dividend equivalents will accrue without interest and be paid only with respect to PRSUs that vest based on the final number of shares earned.

The Award will be subject to the terms and conditions of an award agreement and the Plan.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

A copy of the related press release issued by the Corporation announcing Mr. Wiedman's election as a director is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
